

ALAN C. SIMON, R.Ph.

Aug 1973 B.S. in Pharmacy Butler University School of Pharmacy

April 1978 opened Simon's Prospect Apothecary in Prospect, KY

1993 Awarded "Pharmacist of the Year" by the Jefferson County Academy of Pharmacy.

Feb 1998, (4 hours C.E.) Therapeutic use of herbs

April 1998, (6 hours C.E.) Alternative Medicine

July 1998, (15 hours C.E.) Introduction to Nutritional and Natural Medicine I & II

Sept 1998, (15 hours C.E.) Introduction and Advanced Natural Medicine I

Oct 1998, (12 hours C.E.) National Institute of Pharmacist Care Outcomes, "Diabetes Care and Management"

Nov 1998, (15 hours C.E.) Advanced Integrative Natural Medicine II

April 1999, (15 hours C.E.) Natural Approaches to Clinical Conditions

July 1999, (3 hours C.E.) The Emerging Role of Complementary Therapy in the Clinical Setting

Sept 1999, (19 hours C.E.) International and American Associations of Clinical Nutritionists, "Degeneration and Regeneration in our Toxic Environment"

Feb 2000, (15 hours C.E.) Natural Approaches to Weight Loss and Diabetes

April 2000, (10 hours C.E.) Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletions

Sept 2000, (4 hours C.E.) Counseling on Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletions

Sept 2000, (4 hour C.E.) Nutrition, Antioxidants, and Phytotherapy

Sept 2000, (12 hours) Natural Approaches Case Studies

July 2001, (12 hours C.E.) Introduction to Functional Medicine and Homeopathy, "Classic Homeopathy"

Sept 2001, conducted 1 hour continuing education for physicians at Baptist East Hospital on Herb and Drug interactions

Sept 2002, (15 hours C.E.) National Institute of Pharmacist Care Outcomes, “Osteoporosis Care”

Nov 2002, Jacob Teitelbaum M.D. workshop on effective treatment of Chronic Fatigue and Fibromyalgia syndromes (18 hours)

March 2003, (27 hours) “Homeopathic Case Taking” a study of homeopathic medicine from appreciation to application from the Academy of Integrative Medicine

Aug 2003, (23 hours C.E.) International and American Associations of Clinical Nutritionists Scientific Symposium, “Nutrition and Cancer”: Prevention, Assessment and Support

Sept 2003, conducted 1 hour program for the Kentucky Association of Naturopathic Physicians on Herb and Drug interactions and “Nutraceuticals”

Feb 29, 2004, conducted a 1 hour ACPE approved continuing education program for the Jefferson County Academy of Pharmacy on Herb and Drug interactions and “Nutraceuticals”

Aug 2004, (18 hours C.E.) International and American Associations of Clinical Nutritionists Scientific Symposium, “Nutritional Advancements in Pediatric and Adolescent Care”

Sept 2004, conducted 1 hour program for the Kentucky Association of Naturopathic Physicians on Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletions, Prescription and Non-Prescription

Nov 4th 2004, conducted a 1 hour program at the Kentucky Psychological Association Convention on the gut-brain connection, how autonomic dysfunction affects digestion and the gastrointestinal system, and the role of homocysteine and inflammation in dementia and Alzheimer’s disease.

June 2005, (10 hours C.E.) Laboratory Analysis: Testing, Interpretation, and Application from the Academy of Integrative Medicine, and Westbrook University.

Nov 21st 2005, conducted a 2 hours seminar for Down Syndrome of Louisville, Inc. on “Nutritional Interventions and Obstacles to Health”.

Dec 31st 2005, aired on National Public Radio (WFPL) “Health Works” and spoke on the topic of Dietary Supplementation and Nutrition.

June 24th 2006, conducted a 1 hour ACPE approved continuing education program for the Kentucky Pharmacist Association on Herb and Drug Interactions.

Sept 29th & 30th 2006, (14 hours) Academy of Integrative Medicine Symposium on “Correcting the Underlying Causes of ADD/ADHD and Autism”.

Jan 26th 2006, aired on National Public Radio (WFPL) “State of Affairs” with 2 physicians and a nurse practitioner, and spoke on “Holistic Health and Integrative Medicine”

Jan 29th 2006, conducted a 1 hour program for students in a class at the University of Louisville called “Current Trends in Health Education and Health Promotion” and spoke on obstacles to health and the dangers of trans fats.

March 4th 2007, conducted a 1 hour ACPE approved continuing education program for the Jefferson County Academy of Pharmacy on Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletions.

July 29th 2007, conducted a 1 hours ACPE approved continuing education program for the Jefferson County Academy of Pharmacy on the Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act, Dietary Supplement Information Bureau, and Drug and Herb Interactions.

Sept 30th 2007, conducted a 1 hour ACPE approved continuing education program for the American Pharmacy Services Corporation 10th annual meeting for independent pharmacist on Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletions.

Dec 1st 2007, conducted a 2 hours program for the Kentucky Association of Naturopathic Physicians conference on Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletions and use of dietary supplements.

Jan 22nd 2008, conducted a 2 hour program for students at the University of Louisville called “Women’s Health Issues” and spoke on Obstacles to Health and Osteoporosis.

Feb 10th 2008, conducted a 1.5 hour ACPE approved continuing education program for the Ohio Pharmacist Foundation APCS Independent Pharmacy Seminar on Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletions.

April 29th 2008, presented a 1.5 hour program at Baptist Hospital East’s Cancer Care Center, on Cancer and Nutrition, “Obstacles and Enhancement to Health”.

June 14th 2008, conducted three 30 minutes sessions on integrative gastroenterology at Jewish Hospital’s “Inflammatory Bowel Disease P. E. P. (patient empowerment program) Talk presented by the Louisville Gastroenterology and Colorectal Community.

Feb 10th 2009, guest lectured as voluntary faculty to 74 students for 1 hour at Sullivan University School of Pharmacy on Herb and Drug Interactions.

Feb 18th 2009, guest lectured as voluntary faculty to 74 students for 2 hours at Sullivan University School of Pharmacy on Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletion.

Feb 24th 2009, guest lectured as voluntary faculty to 74 students for 1 hour at Sullivan University School of Pharmacy for 1 hour on Brain Protection and Performance Enhancement.

July 26th 2009, conducted a 1 hour ACPE approved continuing education program for the Jefferson County Academy of Pharmacy on Drug-Induced Nutrient Depletion.